Your signature below verifies that you understand the following:

Becoming an EBCF mentor is a long-term commitment to support an EBCF Scholar during his or her college education. To establish successful mentor-student relationships, EBCF works to match up mentors and students with similar interests, colleges, or majors. EBCF continues to re-evaluate matches to ensure that both mentor and student experience a good match. You are asked to contact your student at least once a month and to get together with your student at least once during winter and/or summer college breaks. EBCF will provide support and information to help you with your role as a mentor, host group get-togethers for EBCF mentors and students, and contact you to receive feedback about the success of your match and the EBCF mentoring program.
